President of the Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy

José Torres

Dr. José M. Torres was named President of the Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy in 2014. He is a recipient of the Dr. Effie H. Jones Humanitarian Award (2014) from the American Association of School Administrators.

At the invitation of Governor Bruce Rauner, Dr. Torres serves on the advisory committee for the Governor's Technology Advisory Group; and the Governor's Cabinet on Children and Youth. He also serves on the Cost of Segregation Education Advisory Group; and on the board of directors of the Illinois Association for Gifted Children, the Governor's P-20 Council and Advocate Sherman Hospital in Elgin, Illinois.

He is the former School Superintendent of Elgin School District U-46 where he implemented a five-year accountability plan that established new benchmarks supporting the District's 40,000 students' efforts to achieve academic success. He served on the U.S. Department of Education's Federal Equity and Excellence Commission (2011-2013). He is a past regional superintendent for the Chicago Public Schools and has worked in school districts in San José, Calif.; Anne Arundel, Baltimore; Rockville, Md.; Washington, D.C.; and the U.S. Department of Defense Schools.

Dr. Torres holds degrees from the University of Maryland (College Park, Maryland); Bachelor Degree in General Studies (1983), Master of Education (1985), and a Doctor of Philosophy in Education Policy, Planning and Administration (1999). His hometown is San Juan, Puerto Rico.
