10 Speaker

Introduction

This module is to give students an example of and access to _____. This provides the students with a person who has real life experience in EnACT related fields. This will give students an additional perspective about EnACT and first hand knowledge about activism, government, etc.

Objectives

- Give students access to a real world member of an EnACT related field
- Show students a first hand perspective of current events and issues
- Give students an experienced professional to engage with and ask questions to

Agenda

1. Take attendance
2. Meet somewhere that the speaker will speak
3. Questions