

to this galaxy i seek each star that i find a childish dream arises something from my younger mind

and each planet i set my gaze on a fear of the future
is a reasoning song

from the sun to the moon
with each obstacle demise i can hear myself reaching that melodious tune

past present and future
let each hope and pleasantry be a muse for me
