Leadership in Education

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.”

-Nelson Mandela

Introduction

As constituents of academia, our students are surrounded by educational systems and models. This module seeks to broaden their horizons regarding educational systems both in the United States and elsewhere in the world, as well as educate them on applications of leadership within an academic classroom environment.

Objectives

1. Students will be able to expand their views of what education is.
2. Students will learn about leadership and psychology that is applicable to them in a classroom, as students and leaders.
3. Students will understand how they can help their fellow students learn.

Agenda

1. Education Around the World
2. Common Core
3. Teacher-Student Relationships
4. Analyzing Lesson Plans
5. Orientations of Motivation
6. Fixed vs. Growth Mindset
