

Servant Leadership in Education-Based Nonprofits

1. Introduction
 - a. Servant leadership's prevalence in today's society
 - b. Ties to human rights and educational opportunity
 - c. A short summary of the context of this paper
2. Goal and Background
 - a. Evaluate and identify traits and development of servant leadership in different educational nonprofit organizations
 - b. Servant Leadership within Educational context
 - c. Interview Search Method and Content Development
3. Interview analysis
 - a. People's School of Music
 - i. Interviewee context
 - ii. Notes of servant leadership
 - iii. Presence in interview
 - iv. Valuable insight
 - b. Open Books
 - i. Interviewee context
 - ii. Notes of servant leadership
 - iii. Presence in interview
 - iv. Valuable insight
 - c. What went well
 - i. Content
 - ii. Context of interviewers
 - iii. Reflection on the position as a part of the institution
 - d. What could have been done better?
 - i. Various interviews in the same organization?
 - ii. More time?
 - iii. Development of servant leadership context (what would this do or look like in the interview)
4. Overall Takeaways
 - a. Takeaways on organizations overall
 - b. Variance in servant leadership within specific organizations
 - c. Dependence on structure
 - d. Servant leadership being a goal never attained so presents itself uniquely
5. Resources
 - a. Interviews
 - b. Interview Questions
 - c. Website information
 - d. Readings